

Wingspan

Laramie County Community College

Facebook YouTube Twitter Instagram

HOME | NEWS | ARTS AND ENTERTAINMENT | SPORTS | OPINION | EVENTS | ARCHIVES | STAFF

Breaking News January 15, 2018 in Breaking News // Noble leaves Golden Eagles, accepts new position at Western New Mexico University

Scott Noble has served as Laramie County Community College's Director of Athletics/Campus Recreation for the past three years and has made contributions to athletics and academics.

Noble leaves Golden Eagles, accepts new position at Western New Mexico University

Laramie County Community College's Director of Athletics/Campus Recreation, Scott Noble, is leaving the Golden Eagles as he has accepted the position as Director of Athletics at Western New Mexico University, it was announced Monday.

"My wife Debbie and I are very thankful for this opportunity to be a part of Grant County and Mustang Nation," Noble said in a news release issued by WNMU.

Noble has served at LCCC over the past three years, and was recognized by WNMU's President Dr. Joseph Shepard for "meeting challenges that yield outstanding results." Shepard said that he believes Noble presents leadership that will bring success to WNMU athletics.

Read more

Feminism: The need for equality toward both sexes

According to the dictionary, the term feminism is defined as, "The advocacy of a woman's rights on the basis of the equality of sexes."

search

To search, type and hit enter

Broadcast schedule

- Board of Trustees meeting, Jan. 24.
- Board of Trustees meeting, Feb. 28.
- Board of Trustees meeting, March 21.
- Board of Trustees meeting, April 11.
- Board of Trustees meeting, May 9.

Calendar

Spring semester A block classes start

January 16

First Day of B14 classes

January 29

First day of B12 block classes

February 12

View All Events

More Wingspan, in your inbox

Sign up for the Wingspan News Digest and stay in the know with what's happening on campus.

Your Name

Your Email (required)

Send

Feminism is brought up within society when talking about the history of women, during times of inequality between men and woman, and in instances when women are put down because of their sex.

Read more

Houston Brown’s past shines through for LCCC rodeo team

Houston Brown may be a freshman for the Laramie County Community College rodeo team, but a person would never know it by his performances or his demeanor.

It did not take Brown long to introduce himself to the Central Rocky Mountain division of college rodeo. In his first event, Brown finished fourth in saddle bronc, riding with a final score of 73. Brown also had a strong finish at the Lamar Community College rodeo when he took seventh overall as the teams’ roping header.

Brown had his best performance yet at the Sheridan College rodeo, finishing third overall in the men’s all-around with a final score of 130, finishing only 10 points from second place.

Read more

Outside hitter Nelson earns FOY in Region IX North

The Golden Eagles volleyball team had an outstanding year and the same could be said about freshman outside hitter Avery Nelson.

Nelson was named the Region IX North Freshman of the Year after appearing in all 42 matches and leading the Golden Eagles in kills, with a total of 472.

“I didn’t expect it I guess,” Nelson said. “When they announced that I was (Freshman of the Year) I was super excited and it meant a lot.”

Nelson helped lead the Golden Eagles to a record of 34-8 and the team’s first ever NJCAA Division I Volleyball Tournament.

Read more

News

Noble leaves Golden Eagles, accepts new position at Western New Mexico University

January 15, 2018

Sports

Houston Brown’s past shines through for LCCC rodeo team

December 11, 2017

Houston Brown may be a freshman for the Laramie County Community College rodeo team, but a person would never know it by his performances or his demeanor. It did not take [...]

Arts

Trombone Shorty & Orleans Avenue set date to get jazzy at the Civic Center

November 30, 2017

Trombone Shorty & Orleans Avenue will be performing at the Cheyenne Civic Center on Jan. 31. Troy Andrews,

Opinion

Feminism: The need for equality toward both sexes

December 11, 2017

According to the dictionary, the term feminism is defined as, “The advocacy of a woman’s rights on the basis of the equality of sexes.” Feminism is brought up within [...]

Laramie County Community College's Director of Athletics/Campus Recreation, Scott Noble, is leaving the Golden Eagles as he has accepted the position as Director of [...]

Sodexo takes precautions to ensure food safety

The Giving Tree program brings good tidings to children of LCCC students

Donations welcome for Phi Theta Kappa's care package to National Guard

Live broadcast of the Board of Trustees meeting for Dec. 6, 2017

Outside hitter Nelson earns FOY in Region IX North

Region IX player of the year leads Golden Eagles in scoring

Women's soccer goes 1-1 at third straight national tournament

First appearance at national championship in school history, volleyball ends with 10th place finish

also known as Trombone Shorty, plays a mix of jazz, hip hop, [...]

Cheyenne Civic Center to host "Take Your Best Shot" photo contest

Popular games go head to head in the Game Awards

Art Student Union creates broad learning environment

LCCC theatre program receives multiple awards for "The Laramie Project: Ten Years Later"

Games Corner | Wolfenstein II: The New Colossus

Be advised at your own risk

History cemented into place

There's a time to protest, there's a time to stand