

Wingspan

Laramie County Community College

Facebook YouTube Twitter Instagram

HOME | NEWS | ARTS AND ENTERTAINMENT | SPORTS | OPINION | EVENTS | ARCHIVES | STAFF

Soccer players continue careers outside of Laramie County Community College

Abby Morillon (front, left) and Nikita Woods (front, right) sign their letters of intent on Feb. 28. Morillon will be joining Tiffin University in Tiffin, Ohio, while Woods will be going to Fort Hays State University in Hays, Kansas. Also pictured are coaches Kay Olivas (left) and Jim Gardner (right).

Two Golden Eagles women soccer players have decided to extend their playing careers at four year universities.

Nikita Woods and Abby Morillon signed their letters of intent on Feb. 28. Sophomore midfielder Woods (Corrimal, Australia) signed her letter of intent with Division II Fort Hays State University in Hays, Kansas. Sophomore midfielder Morillon (Cheyenne, Wyoming) signed her letter of intent with Division II Tiffin University in Tiffin, Ohio.

Woods led the Golden Eagles in 2017 with 25 goals and added 10 assists, and ended her career at Laramie County Community College with 37 goals and 20 assists. She ranks second in LCCC history with 37 career goals and 25 goals in a single season.

Read more

Spring career fair brings in employers to provide students jobs

The 2018 Spring Career Fair will be held for students looking for jobs from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on March 27 at Laramie County Community College's Recreation and Athletic Center.

Read more

Staff of the Year awards to be announced May 4

Laramie County Community College Staff Senate is going to award two LCCC employees with the Staff of the Year award. The award recognizes employees who make outstanding contributions.

Read more

The political divide runs deep with no bridging in sight

It is 2018; Donald Trump is president, Snoop Dog has his own Netflix show and women are wearing pink pussyhats during marches.

All debatable subjects at this point in history, but none of them are as prominent as the extreme political divide that the United States is facing.

Read more

search

To search, type and hit enter

Broadcast schedule

- Board of Trustees meeting, March 21.
- Board of Trustees meeting, April 11.
- Board of Trustees meeting, May 9.

Calendar

Sharan Elran's Art Exhibition

March 8 - March 29

Spring Career Fair

March 27 @ 10:00 am - 3:00 pm

2018 Spring Career Fair

March 27 @ 10:00 am - 3:00 pm

View All Events

More Wingspan, in your inbox

Sign up for the Wingspan News Digest and stay in the know with what's happening on campus.

Your Name

Your Email (required)

News

Learning Commons expanding to better serve

March 26, 2018

Laramie County Community College's Learning Commons, located in the Ludden Library, is undergoing new changes and expansions to increase the amount of academic help that it [...]

Lyle Lovett & His Large Band to perform at the Civic Center

Spring career fair brings in employers to provide students jobs

Reality Town set for April at ACC

Staff of the Year awards to be announced May 4

Sports

Soccer players continue careers outside of Laramie County Community College

March 22, 2018

Two Golden Eagles women soccer players have decided to extend their playing careers at four year universities. Nikita Woods and Abby Morillon signed their letters of [...]

Four sophomores depart after this year

Men's basketball loses opening playoff game against Lamar Community College

Houston Brown takes first in saddle bronc riding at LCCC's Shawn Dubie Memorial Rodeo

Former Golden Eagle goalkeeper makes lifelong dream a reality

Arts

Method acting debunked

March 22, 2018

Starting April 19, three actresses will be hitting the LCCC Playhouse stage to perform "Laundry and Bourbon" directed by Jason Pasqua as part of a two-part production. [...]

The Same Mind

The Same Mind

Cafe offers more than healthy eats

Asher Building offers live music on Friday nights

Opinion

The political divide runs deep with no bridging in sight

March 22, 2018

It is 2018; Donald Trump is president, Snoop Dog has his own Netflix show and women are wearing pink pussyhats during marches. All debatable subjects at this point in [...]

PostSecret: The Show review

You can take the girl out of Wyoming but not Wyoming out of the girl

Pros, cons, rights; marriage is changing in the United States

The wonders of kindness

About Contact Past staff members